Bio

Zoe Lambert is an attorney with the firm's Business Services Group. She advises clients on a range of transactional matters, including corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financings, securities law compliance, and general commercial transactions.

Before joining the firm in her current role, Zoe gained hands-on experience with the Business Services Group as a summer associate at Drummond Woodsum. She also served as a transactional extern with Geiger, where she assisted with commercial contracts, and as a legal extern with IDEXX, supporting the company's Commercial, Operations, Litigation, and Antitrust Group. These experiences gave Zoe valuable insight into the needs of businesses of all sizes, from local companies to large international organizations.

Zoe earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of Maine School of Law, where she also received the Corporate Law Award and completed a Certificate in Business and Transactional Law. During law school, she authored a paper on the commercial and regulatory framework for tribal casinos raising debt financing, reflecting her interest in complex financial structures. She received her B.S. in Criminal Justice, summa cum laude, from the University of Alabama.
